CRA responds to questions from CPAs across Canada – 2023

During 2023, CPAs across the country were canvassed to pose the top questions they have for the CRA.

During 2023, CPAs across the country were canvassed to pose the top questions they have for the CRA. Some of the topics covered include:

- Update on audit initiatives and the future of desk audits and other remote work
- Guidance on exempt income and research grants
- Home office expenses and automobile expenses
- Automatic adjustments
- Misallocated personal tax payments in My Account
- Communicating with CRA
- Electronic services enhancements
- Update on special elections and returns
- Policy on electronic signatures
- Guidance on cryptocurrency

Download the CRA's responses to these questions.

Publication date:

November 17, 2023

Business and accounting resources

CPA Canada Handbook: Standards and guidance collection

Audit and assurance

Finance

Financial and non-financial reporting

Forensic and investigative accounting

Foresight initiative

Management accounting

Strategy, risk and governance

Sustainability is good business

Taxation

Tax and fiscal policy

Assessments and appeals

Tax blog

Corporate tax

Indirect tax

Personal tax

Canadian tax news

Other general business topics

Financial literacy resources

Become a CPA

Why become a CPA?

Pathways to becoming a CPA

Provincial & regional bodies

PD & Resources

Resources

Conferences

In-Person courses

Online courses

dbook

CPA Members

International members

Member benefits

Savings & offers

GAA passport program

News

Media centre

Pivot magazine

News content

About CPA Canada

Governance

Job opportunities

Volunteer

Fraud policy

Contact us

Public Interest

How CPA Canada serves

Public policy

Financial literacy

Privacy Policy

Cookie Policy

Other Policies