

Notice of Temporary Restrictions on Registrations – Emil Kassamali Salehmohamed Remtullah, CPA, CA & Emil Rem, Chartered Professional Accountant

On March 16, 2026, the Chair of the Complaints Inquiry Committee for CPA Alberta (the “CIC Chair”) imposed the following restrictions on the registrations of Emil Kassamali Salehmohamed Remtullah, CPA, CA (“Emil Remtullah, CPA, CA”) and Emil Rem, Chartered Professional Accountant, registrants of CPA Alberta, pending the decision of the Complaints Inquiry Committee on whether to refer two complaints against the above-named to a hearing and, if referred, the conclusion of the disciplinary proceedings arising from the complaints under Part 5 of the Chartered Professional Accountants Act, SA 2014, c C-10.2 (“the CPA Act”):

1. A restriction on the ability of Emil Remtullah, CPA, CA and Emil Rem, Chartered Professional Accountant to directly or indirectly borrow from, solicit investment from, or obtain a loan or guarantee from a current or former client unless the loan or guarantee has been made under normal commercial terms and conditions and the client is a bank or similar financial institution whose business is the private lending of money.

The restrictions on registration were imposed pursuant to the authority of the CIC Chair under Section 107 of the CPA Act and are in effect.

For greater clarity, and despite the interim nature of the restriction set out above, compliance with Rule 209.1(a) of the CPA Alberta Rules of Professional Conduct is a continual obligation of all registrants of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Alberta, including the above-named.
