

DISCIPLINE HEARING
HONG THI LE, CPA, CGA

A Discipline Tribunal has been convened to conduct a hearing into allegations of unprofessional conduct regarding Hong Thi (Rose) Le.

The Complaints Inquiry Committee alleges that Hong Thi (Rose) Le is guilty of unprofessional conduct in that she:

1. Associated herself with CPA.S.C, a firm that is not registered with CPA Alberta as a professional accounting firm but provides professional accounting or public accounting services;
2. Continued to use the email address of the CVWA without authorization of the Board of CVWA, and failed to return the administration of the email address of CVWA to the Board upon their request; and
3. Failed to cooperate appropriately with the conduct processes of CPA Alberta by failing to respond to the complaints made against her.

All of which is contrary to the provisions of the Chartered Professional Accountants Act, SA 2014, c. C-10.2, or the regulations, bylaws, Rules of Professional Conduct enacted pursuant thereto or standards of practice, constituting unprofessional conduct.
