

DISCIPLINE HEARING MIMOZA MURATAJ

A Discipline Tribunal has been convened to conduct a hearing into allegations of unprofessional conduct regarding MIMOZA MURATAJ.

The Complaints Inquiry Committee alleges that MIMOZA MURATAJ is guilty of unprofessional conduct in that she:

1. Associated with information and representations which she knew or should have known were false and misleading in that she:
  - a. Submitted two employment record letters to CPA Alberta pursuant to her practical experience reporting as a CPA Candidate dated December 14, 2017 and March 12, 2018:
    - i. that misrepresented her employment dates, in that she represented she was employed with C.S. Ltd. for one year longer and 22 months longer than she actually was; and
    - ii. in which she fraudulently attached the signature of the Director of C.S. Ltd.;
  - b. Submitted a CPA Alberta Mentoring Agreement to her mentor that misrepresented her employment position;
  - c. Provided a resume to her mentor in which she misrepresented the length of her employment with C.S. Ltd.;
  - d. Provided a falsified note to her employer, C.S. Ltd., dated February 26, 2018 purportedly from her doctor;
  - e. Represented herself to the owner of C.S. Ltd. as a CPA member in an email dated December 14, 2017 when she was not a CPA member;
  - f. Entered more work hours than she actually worked into the C.S. Ltd. payroll software, Tracker Plus, for the dates October 12, 2017 and December 4, 6 and 7, 2017;
2. Increased her rate of pay within the C.S. Ltd. payroll system in August 2017 without proper authorization from her supervisor in order to obtain remuneration to which she was not entitled;
3. Paid herself vacation pay without the proper authorization from her supervisor at C.S. Ltd. in the pay periods dated October 2-15, 2017 and November 27-December 10, 2017 in order to obtain remuneration to which she was not entitled; and
4. Violated the policies of C.S. Ltd. to which she had agreed to adhere in that she:
  - a. Used company technology for personal use;
  - b. Accessed confidential employee information in the C.S. Ltd. payroll system for personal use; and
  - c. Solicited employees of C.S. Ltd. to be clients of her personal tax preparation business.

All of which is contrary to the provisions of the Chartered Professional Accountants Act, SA 2014, c. C-10.2, or the regulations, bylaws, Rules of Professional Conduct enacted pursuant thereto or standards of practice, constituting unprofessional conduct.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT: