DISCIPLINE HEARING
XIAODONG (JEFF) ZHAO, CPA, CGA

A Discipline Tribunal has been convened to conduct a hearing into allegations of unprofessional conduct regarding Xiaodong Zhao, CPA, CGA.

The Complaints Inquiry Committee alleges that Xiaodong Zhao, CPA, CGA, is guilty of unprofessional conduct in that he:

1. Failed to perform professional services with integrity and due care, in that he:
    a. Failed to file the 2022 personal tax return for Party A on a timely basis; and
    b. Failed to respond on a timely basis to communications from Party A during the period April 26, 2023 and June 23, 2023;

2. Engaged in a public accounting practice, and offered to provide aspects of a public accounting practice, through an entity, YewTX Accounting Ltd. ("YewTX"), while YewTX was not properly registered with CPA Alberta to provide those services;

3. Failed to respond to the following communications from CPA Alberta that required a response:
    a. The August 17, 2023 and October 2, 2023 communications of the CIC Secretary requiring a response to the complaint of Party A; and
    b. The October 15, November 4 and December 3, 2021 communications from Corporate Registrations with respect to the professional services being advertised or provided through YewTX.

All of which is contrary to the provisions of the Chartered Professional Accountants Act, SA 2014, c.C-10.2, or the regulations, bylaws, Rules of Professional Conduct enacted pursuant thereto or standards of practice, constituting unprofessional conduct.
